Re: Proof of Claim #13172

Dear Ms. Roman:

I hope you are well. On September 26, 2011, you attended the hearing in the Motors Liquidation Company chapter 11 cases in New York, as the proof of claim you had filed (proof of claim no. 13172) was subject to objection in the 237th Omnibus Objection to Claims (Claims Relating to Former Employees Represented by United Auto Workers) being heard at that hearing.

At that time, we explained to you that as a result of a settlement between the United Auto Workers union and Motors Liquidation Company (formerly known as General Motors Corporation), your welfare benefits are now provided by the UAW Retiree Medical Benefits Trust. Your claim for welfare benefits against Motors Liquidation Company was therefore being objected to, as you should have been receiving the welfare benefits to which you are entitled from the UAW Retiree Medical Benefits Trust.

At the hearing, we advised the court that we would assist you in confirming that your welfare benefits are in fact being provided to you by the UAW Retiree Medical Benefits Trust.

We have now completed our inquiry into your welfare benefits. As you will see from the email attached to this letter from the UAW Retiree Medical Benefits Trust, you are enrolled under the UAW Retiree Medical Benefits Trust as a General Motors surviving spouse. You should maintain coverage under the UAW Retiree Medical Benefits Trust for so long as it remains in existence.

Lastly, you brought to our attention a letter from Medco relating to prescriptions you currently receive, and which are set to expire. We took the liberty of contacting Medco, and confirmed that prescriptions provided for under the terms of the Blue Cross Blue Shield Traditional Care Network Plan under which you are enrolled will continue to be covered, however you are required to renew your prescriptions from time to time, and the letter from Medco was simply advising you to attend your physician and renew your prescription.

We now intend to proceed to expunge your proof of claim at the hearing currently scheduled for November 22, 2011. If you have any questions or concerns relating to this letter, please contact me at your earliest convenience using the details above.
